About us

General Manager MASSIMO SALERNO

1998 – I inaugurate and launch an important laboratory of confectionery and gastronomy, starting my career as general manager for events and banqueting, especially for wedding branch.

2009 – Start managing the food and beverage department in the Luxury Hotel “Castello Chiola” in Loreto Aprutino (Abruzzo, Italy), being able to immediately triple the number of events, gala dinners and weddings.

2013 – Assume the Hotel Mercure Roma West management of Food & Beverage department in the Restaurant De Gustibus, to improve performances and tune its development to the goals of the entire structure. The very good results obtained have been appreciated by the company which observed an increasing turnover.

About us

Staff

Everyday Banqueting staff is formed by young professionals and long-standing experienced partners, efficiently able to deal with any event with a particular inclination for food culture.

Chosen staff for organizing, controlling and coordinating events: professionals with degrees in Tourism Science, Foreign Languages and Nutritional Science for the welcome care and the right interpretation of food.

Wedding planner for the refined and elegant care for the organization.

Maitre and waiters from the greatest schools trained to organize the best service.

In the kitchen, our menus and their creation are assigned to Marianna De Palma, a specialist of gourmet sensory techniques, who applied her knowledge by working as chef.

Her contemporary cuisine meets the taste of the moment without losing sight of the history of cuisine and its cultural development.
